

Hi there friends and people out there :)

I decided to become an entrepreneur. Actually, being my own boss is something that has been in my blood since I was little. By writing this, I am making it official.

On the following lines you will find the terms and conditions that apply with my freelance services. Please read carefully.

- You can expect me to do my homework.
- I do take it seriously. Your potential success is linked with mine, and the other way around.
- New ideas arise every 24 hours. Continuously learning.
- If you want to meet me in person, do not expect me to wear a suit and heels.
- If you want to talk with me about further business, show me your empathy with others and the planet first.
- If you ask me about *automatic work like translation, proofreading, transcription, etc, average market rates apply.
Note: automatic refers to something that can be done without too much conscious effort.*
- If you ask me about *creative work like storytelling, marketing campaigns, etc, do not expect the same price as automatic work.
Note: by accepting my services you understand that working with my creativity takes energy & time and those have a higher value.*
- If you can not afford paying the rate and your business can prove that it helps the planet or social marginalized and vulnerable groups to shine and recover, I will offer you a discount on my services.

- I do accept tips. But if the money you pay me, I consider is too much for what I did, I will put it in my box of "Use it wisely with people and things in need".
- If you are a regenerative organic farm owner, a marine gardener or you have a place where you develop your activity for a better world and need hands, do not hesitate to contact me. We can make a deal with my offline services :)
- If waves are too good, do not expect me to be available.
- Friends and family first.
- Inspired by fair trade.
- I do not play by the normal rules of business.
- This is not a science fiction paper. This is the truth of my entrepreneurial spirit.
- If after reading all this you think I can not do business, then continue searching. Good luck ;)
